James: That's such a (4) plan. I've thought about traveling too, but my parents prefer that I start working right away. They're a bit worried about money and stability.

Emma: My parents were (5) at first too, but now they understand. I've saved up a bit, and I promised them I'd be careful with my budget.

James: I admire your courage. It takes confidence to take a different (6).

Emma: Thanks. I think it's important to do what feels right. Everyone's journey is different.

James: True. I've (7) to a few companies, but if things don't work out, maybe I'll travel for a while too.

Emma: That would be great! Let's meet up in Spain if you come!

James: (8). No matter what happens, I just hope we both enjoy this next stage of life.

Emma: Definitely. Let's support each other and make it something to remember.
